

White Shoe Sale

This week you can buy your White Shoes at the WALK-OVER Store at a big saving.

We do not wish to carry any of these goods over and also need the room for new goods. Here's your chance:

All our Men's and Women's $3.00 Oxfords and Pumps, Black, Tan, and Patent Leather, at $2.39 a pair.

We also have a few broken and odd lots at your own price. See display window.

Rogers' Walk-Over Shoe Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

Lumber, both soft and hard wood, rough and finished. At the C. L. Bugbee mill.

Refrigerators and ice boxes, 25 per cent. discount this week only. Saddlers, 10 Keith avenue.

Auction sale, household goods, at City auction market, Depot square, Saturday at 1 p. m. See ad. O. H. Hale, auctioneer.

The annual Sunday school picnic in connection with the Church of the Good Shepherd will be held on Saturday, July 28, at Dewey park. The children are requested to assemble at the church at 10 a. m. sharp. Car leaves at 10:15. The fare of all the Sunday school children will be paid. Parents are asked to accompany their children, as well as the teachers. All are to bring baskets along. The choir boys are invited to attend, and their parents will also be welcomed.

Earn--Save

"Industry earns money, and prudence plans what to do with one's earnings."

Experience teaches us that it is the part of prudence to save a portion of one's earnings for that proverbial "rainy day," which, sooner or later, comes to most of us.

Experience teaches us, also, that it is the part of wisdom to deposit those savings in a well-managed savings institution, where they will earn FOUR per cent. interest.

It is said that in 1820 there were only 9,000 savings depositors in the whole United States, while to-day, less than a century later, there are more than 9,000,000 savings depositors in this country. There must be a reason for this wonderful increase—people have learned that if they would have they must first SAVE.

If others have learned this lesson and profited by it, you can do the same if you will.

We shall be glad to have you open an account in the "GRANITE" at 4 per cent. interest. Money deposited now will draw interest from August 1.

Granite Savings Bank and Trust Company
Barre, Vermont

The woman who wants home to be bright will use Matchless Liquid Gloss

Cleans and Polishes

Hardwood floors, furniture, pianos and all finished surfaces.

Removes dirt and grease from oil cloth and linoleum.

We are selling it in 1/2-pt. cans at 25c, 1-pt. cans at 40c, 1-qt. cans at 65c, 1-gal. cans at $1.50

Convenient spouts. No bottles to break. Order a can to-day.

A. W. Badger & Co.,
Furnishing Undertakers and Embalmers
THE BEST OF AMBULANCE SERVICE

BARRE DAILY TIMES

Published Every Week-day Afternoon

SUBSCRIPTIONS

One year.....$2.00
One month......25 cents
Single copy.....1 cent
Entered at the postoffice at Barre as second-class matter.

FRANK E. LANGLEY, Publisher

The daily average circulation of the Daily Times for the last week was

6,200

This circulation is not exceeded by any paper in the state outside of Burlington.

FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1913.

When there's nothing else to be blamed, why there's the cigarette, which can't resent it.

What has become of that baseball "trust" investigation? Struck out or just plain sacrificed?

And now New York is importuning its legislature to adjourn. It is a cry heard 'round the United States.

T. N. Vail assures Mayor Fitzgerald that he still realizes there is a Boston, Mass., and that its mayor is named Fitzgerald.

Now it is Puck that shows color-blindness by referring to President Wilson's stay in the "Green Mountain State."—From Concord (N. H.) Monitor.

You're seeing "green" again, neighbor.

Col. E. C. Benton, candidate for governor of Massachusetts, announces the "rank and file" want him; which leads to the query, How many privates are there in the Bay state?

Cornwall sets the pace for Vermont "old home week" celebrations. The idea is one of Vermont's best means of entertainment and it ought not to be allowed to lapse into disuse.

That the era of bad feeling is past is indicated by the fact that no remonstrance has come from the South to the proposal to hold the next G. A. R. encampment at Chattanooga, Tenn.

The appointment of Charles Sumner Hamlin of Boston to be assistant secretary of the treasury is a somewhat tardy recognition at Washington that there is such a place in the nation as New England.

Editor Oscar S. Wish of the Portland (Me.) Argus has got his—the Portland postmaster's plum in Maine. It remains to be said there won't be many, if any, Vermont editors to become postmasters this administration.

The Binghamton experience is enough to prove that the fire gong is not something to be regarded lightly. It is worth while to be fooled now and then in order to avoid getting caught when the real emergency arises. Therefore, let the practice of the fire drill be continued with renewed attention in factories, schools and other places where the drill is applicable.

The New York prison authorities have a hard task on their hands to locate the probable firebug in Sing Sing prison, where there have been two fires within a week each fire being accompanied by the disturbance and unrest which is incident to such happenings in prisons. In fact, the week's developments present the most serious kind of a situation, there being, in addition to the fire fiasco, a spirit of mutiny among the prisoners which bodes ill for the keepers if once the prisoners get the upper hand.

WHICH IS BEING "MEAN"?

Should Barre, Vermont, succeed at the close of the Retail Granite Dealers' convention in Boston, in getting the delegates as far away as Vermont it is probable that half of them would not return to Boston for the welcome to be extended by Quincy, however grand the reception planned. If Barre realizes this it is a mean trick which the granite dealers there would consummate. The Quincy granite manufacturers are making no effort to keep the delegates away from Barre, but Quincy is in greater Boston, and to save time and travel, the delegates will want to visit Quincy while at Boston. The Quincy manufacturers are right in insisting that the outgoing day at Quincy shall come the day convention adjourns.—From the Quincy (Mass.) Ledger, July 23.

In reply to the above, The Times would like to state that there is no effort on the part of Barre to be "mean" about this matter of entertaining the delegates to the convention in Boston; nor will there be any effort to be "mean" about it. On the contrary, Barre wishes to treat all fairly in the case, Quincy included with the others.

But the facts in the case seem to be that Barre planned its entertainment of the delegates on the day following the close of the convention long before Quincy began a general movement to the same end and Barre selected Friday of convention week before Quincy selected that day. In other words, Barre had planned months ago to show the delegates to the convention the quarries and manufacturing plants which constitute the greatest monumental granite center in the world, and Barre is only carrying out those plans in insisting that at this late date it would be unjust to ask Barre to change its arrangements. We submit it to an unbiased public whether Barre is showing any "meanness" in the matter.

Moreover, The Ledger's own statement above printed reveals a way out of the tangle, and it is this: Quincy is in greater Boston and is only a comparatively few minutes' ride from the convention hall; the convention will be in session

Ernest Thompson Seton says: "Half our diseases are in our heads and the other half in our houses."

Moral—get time for outdoor exercises.

Here are the clothes to add comfort and zest to the game.

Norfolk suits in thin homespun at $8 to $15.

Two-piece suits in fancy mixtures, $10.50.

Flannel Trousers, $2 to $4. Negligee with short sleeves, 79c to $1.19.

Soft hats and big caps, $1 to $3.50.

And all the other correct details in men's dress for the great outdoors.

To-day, straw hats at special reduced prices.

$5 Panama Hats now...$3.75

3 Straw Hats now...2.00

2 Straw Hats now...1.35

1.50 Straw Hats now...95

One lot Men's Straw Hats, choice for 50c each.

One lot, choice for 15c each.

SPECIAL SHOWING
Men's Summer Suits at $10.50

We Clean, Press and Repair Clothing

F. H. Rogers & Co.

174 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont

U. S. DEPOSITORY

The Only National Bank in Barre.

Under Government Control

Interest in the savings department credited to accounts July 1st and January 1st

The People's National Bank

Open Monday Evenings from 7 to 8

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its location easily makes possible and let Barre entertain immediately after the close of the convention while the delegates are on the way to their homes in the western states.

for three days, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and a large part of the delegates will arrive in Boston on Monday, some perhaps earlier; therefore, there will be plenty of time during the first four working days of the week for the delegates to take the short run out to Quincy and do full justice to the granite industry of that bustling city and at the same time not neglect the sessions of the convention. By Thursday night the entire convention will have had chance enough to visit Quincy; and, by the way, let it be stated that Barre is pleased to have Quincy show its wares to the visitors and does not desire to hamper the quarry owners or manufacturers there in the least. And that would leave the delegates free to leave Boston for Barre Thursday night, arriving in this city Friday morning to spend the remainder of the day in visiting Barre's quarries and great manufacturing plants. Thus the contemporary's own statements open a way to a settlement of the slight disagreement; which is, let Quincy entertain during the week, as its